AL KELLEHER IS FIRM DEFENDER OF
NATIONAL FLAGRESENTS DISPARAGING REFER-ENCES TO COLORS IN FORCE-FUL MANNER

"You fight for your red flag and I will fight for the American flag," declared Al Kellher, the local contractor, yesterday afternoon, as he mixed it with Al Keller, a carpenter employed at the Tonopah Extension mine. At the conclusion of the battle Kellher was without a mark, while friends took Keller and led him to his room where a badly damaged optic and a bruised stomach were given needed attention.

Kellher engaged in an argument with Keller and Paul Whaley yesterday morning in a down town restaurant. Keller and Whaley are socialists and spoke disparagingly. It is charged, against the American flag and also against religion. Kelleher ordered the two men to change the topic of their conversation, but after their refusing to obey the order, he struck one of them.

Last night Kellher hunted up the pair and stated that he was willing to finish the argument. The fight was resumed on St. Patrick street, in the rear of the Kendall, after an additional argument.

"I have been a soldier and a sailor and am willing to fight for the flag," declared Kellher, as he cleaned his decks for action. The battle was fast and furious from the start, with Kellher landing blows every few seconds. At one time, while the two men were wrestling on the ground, Keller managed to get on top, and picking up a handful of mud, threw it in his antagonist's eyes. This trick, instead of angering Kellher, resulted otherwise, and striking out with a terrific uppercut, he landed on Keller's eye. That blow stopped the battle. On arising Kellher asked for Whaley, as he desired to have additional satisfaction for the aspersions cast on the American flag, but Whaley was not to be found.

Kellher served in the United States army and later was employed in the transport service, running to the Philippine Islands and Honolulu out of San Francisco. On several different occasions he has come to the defense of the American flag and every time he has succeeded in enforcing respect for the national colors.

AMUSEMENTS

Tonight's program at the Butler theater is composed of the following feature pictures: "Target Practice of Atlantic Fleet, U. S. Navy." This is a remarkable picture showing what the men behind the guns can do with the great engines of war. The havoc is easy to imagine from the accurate firing at a target six miles away and the splashes of water resulting from the salvos are most spectacular. This picture was taken by special permission of the navy department. "Lena and the Geese" is one of the best Biograph dramas ever produced by that company and tells a beautiful story of old Holland. "Love in the Ghetto," a Vitaphone life portrayal of the manners and customs of a certain class of Jewish people whose ways are peculiar and interesting. "Max Is Convalescent." The story of this film is particularly interesting, because our old friend Max has recently undergone a very serious operation, and this is his first appearance. This is a corking good comedy picture and will be enjoyed by everybody.

Monday the feature picture, "The Fighting Dervishes of the Desert," will be shown. This picture contains scores of camels and fleet Arabian horses and is filmed in the great Sahara desert. It is beyond doubt one of the greatest pictures ever produced by any American moving picture concern. Next week Ross and Dale and Philie Jones in vaudeville.
